

In shadows where the doubts reside
I walk a path so unsure inside
Each step I take, a question lingers
But hope ignites the flame with fingers

Oh, every tear has washed my soul
Building strength while I lose control
With every heartbeat, I'll rise and fight
A fighter's spirit burning bright

I'm a warrior, feeling the fire
Rising higher with every desire
No more chains to hold me back
This is my moment, I'm on the right track!

Yeah, I'm unstoppable!
Feel the rush, I'm unbreakable!

Through storms that rattle every bone
I learned to stand and carve my own throne
With scars as stories etched on my skin
The battles lost taught me how to win

Oh, every tear has washed my soul
Building strength while I lose control
With every heartbeat, I'll rise and fight
A fighter's spirit burning bright

I'm a warrior, feeling the fire
Rising higher with every desire
No more chains to hold me back
This is my moment, I'm on the right track!

In the silence, I find my way
Chasing dreams that won't fade away
With every doubt that I've let go
I spread my wings and start to glow

I'm a warrior, feeling the fire
Rising higher with every desire
No more chains to hold me back
This is my moment, I'm on the right track!

So here I stand, unbreakable
Embracing life, so unforgettable
With every heartbeat, I sing my song
This is my moment, I'm on the right track!
