

In a world that seems so bright,
But the colors are just a sight.
A drop on the tongue,
a moment to flee,
But reality catches up, suddenly.

LSD,
a mirage of fantasy,
Lures you with illusions, but there's no way back.

LSD,
a game with the mind,
A dance on thin ice,
a dangerous track.

Thoughts are flying, senses distorted,
But the truth remains hidden, so thwarted.
A trip into the unknown, a risky play,
But shadows lurk, cold and gray.

LSD,
a mirage of fantasy,
Lures you with illusions,
but there's no way back.

LSD,
a game with the mind,
A dance on thin ice,

Thoughts are flying, senses distorted, But the truth remains hidden, so thwarted.
A trip into the unknown, a risky play,

But shadows lurk, cold and gray.

LSD,

a mirage of fantasy,

Lures you with illusions, but there's no way back.

LSD,

a game with the mind,

A dance on thin ice,

a dangerous track.

The journey may be tempting, but the price is steep,

A moment of ecstasy, but the consequences deep.

Reality distorted,

the soul confused,

A game with fire,

that leaves you bruised.

LSD,

a mirage of fantasy,

Lures you with illusions,

but there's no way back.

LSD,

a game with the mind,

A dance on thin ice,
