

Neon lights and shadows spin
Silent voices pull me in
Heartbeat racing, feel the spark
Lighting fire in the dark

Strings are rising, drums collide
We're alive — we can't hide

We're a symphony of fire and sound
Heaven high and underground
Every beat, we're born again
Electric hearts without an end
In this rhythm, wild and free
We exist — in symphony

Starlight bursts across the haze
Fingers dance through dreamlike waves
Violins scream through the storm
We are chaos, we are form

Let it break, let it rise
In this moment, no disguise

We're a symphony of fire and sound
Heaven high and underground
Every beat, we're born again
Electric hearts without an end

In this rhythm, wild and free

We exist — in symphony

Feel the tension, raw and real

A film of sound you taste and feel

Thunder drums, they tear the sky

We rise up

We burn high

We're a symphony of fire and sound

Heaven high and underground

Every beat, we're born again

Electric hearts without an end

In this rhythm, wild and free

We exist — in symphony

We exist — in symphony
